

CHAPTER 11 OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL (OGC)

PART 1 DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR TO THE GENERAL COUNSEL

Under the authority of section 3(g) of the Inspector General Act, the Inspector General is represented by its own legal staff in all applicable matters discussed in this Chapter.

Delegated Authority		Limitations
1.	Legal Services
	Responsible for providing all legal services to the services, staff offices and regions within GSA, except those in support of the Office of Inspector General and the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals, to ensure full implementation of GSA's statutory responsibilities and policies. (41 CFR § 105-53.138)
2.	Representation before adjudicating fora.
	Appears on behalf of the Agency as counsel of record in matters brought before the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals (CBCA), Government Accountability Office (GAO), Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA), Arbitrators appointed in accordance with negotiated grievance procedures, and miscellaneous other fora. Determines the Agency's position and strategy. Communicates the Agency's position to the forum and to other parties to the matter. Subject to the rules of the forum, conducts discovery and other litigation procedures, presentation of evidence and examination of witnesses on behalf of the Agency. Binds the Agency to stipulations made to other parties and to the forum. Negotiates and executes written agreements to settle claims in litigation on behalf of the Agency, binding the Agency to commitments resulting in the payment of Treasury funds to claimants, other Agency actions, and the release of affirmative claims against other parties. Assists the Department of Justice (DOJ) in litigation matters involving the agency for which DOJ represents the government. Concurs with positions taken by DOJ in matters for which DOJ represents the government. Selects experts and consultants to provide analysis and opinion testimony in connection with litigation.	a. This authority is limited to the extent that authority to represent the Agency before particular fora is reserved exclusively to the Attorney General. b. Settlements require prior authorization from the appropriate agency official. If the settlement requires the obligation of agency funds, prior consultation with the CFO is also required. To the extent that the Inspector General has independent contracting authority under Section 6 of the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, this provision does not limit that authority of the Inspector General.
3.	Representation to other entities.
	Represents the Agency to other Federal agencies, other government entities, and private parties. Receives notices, communications, and demands from such other entities on behalf of GSA.
4.	Requests for representation by DOJ.
	Requests DOJ representation for employees and former employees who are sued in their individual capacity on account of their exercise of official responsibilities within the scope of their employment, including certifying that such persons were acting within the scope of their employment.
